THINGS THEATRICAL.

Ernest Lamson has closed his season in "Tobe Hoxie" at Jackson, Mich., and returned with his company to New York.

"The Wife Without a Smile," produced at the Criterion theater, New York, proved to be a play without a smile.

Frank Mordant has been engaged by Liebler & Co. for the role of Judge Briscoe in "A Gentleman From Indiana."

Janet Priest has been out of the cast of "The Maid and the Mummy" for several performances owing to acute laryngitis, but is much better and able to go on again. Selma Harris, her understudy, played Muggsy acceptably.

Wagenhals & Kemper have signed contracts with Robert Drouet for his appearance as leading man with Blanche Walsh in Clyde Fitch's new play, "The Woman In the Case," to be presented at the Herald Square theater, New York, Jan. 30.

Maurice Campbell has completed arrangements through Alice Kauser whereby he has secured the American rights of "When We Dead Awake," the last play written by Henrik Ibsen. It will be given at a Broadway theater, New York, early in February.

Indian Punishments.

Some tribes of North American Indians punished malefactors by hanging them by their hands to the limbs of a tree at a height just sufficient to permit the wolves to reach them from the ground. They were left to be eaten alive.

How They Get Into Society.

"Say what you will, Hans, the state prison is a great thing for people like us. What other chance do we have to get cultivation from association with bank presidents and other fine people?"—Helter Welt.

EAST BARRE.

The marriage of Lilla Gallison of our town and Joe Bishop of Washington was solemnized in Barre Monday evening by Justice Scott. Mr. and Mrs. Ordway attended them. They returned to the home of the bride's parents, where Mrs. Bishop expects to reside this winter. The best wishes of many friends and acquaintances follow them in their new life.

THE WRITERS.

The German emperor has granted a pension of $500 a year to the eminent playwright and historian, Rudolf Genée, who has just completed his eightieth year.

Bernard Shaw is becoming very popular in Germany. The Berlin Tageblatt says that "the witty Irishman, whose name and genius were known to only a small circle of readers two years ago, has become a king on our stage."

Rider Haggard has done a great many things besides write the stories through which he is best known to the public. Back in the seventies he was a prominent personage in South Africa—master of the high court of the Transvaal and the man who, with Colonel Brooke, hoisted the British flag over the South African Republic. He was a mighty hunter in those days too.

TALES OF CITIES.

Indianapolis has the biggest soldiers' monument in America.

The city of New Haven, Conn., uses five complete sets of flags each year on the liberty pole. There are three flags in a set.

The town of Woodford, Vt., recently held a town meeting to fill vacancies in its town offices. Two of the selectmen had died, and the other moved from town, and the town clerk and road commissioner had died, leaving all these offices vacant.

Great interest has been aroused in Pueblo, Colo., over the announcement that a gold mine has been discovered almost within the city limits. Pueblo is noted as a great manufacturing city, being called the "Pittsburg of the west," and now is bidding for fame in the mining world.

Pestalozzi's System.

The system of Pestalozzi taught that form, number and language are the elements of knowledge and that a thorough acquaintance with them in every phase constitutes education.

Negro Albinos.

While very rare, albinism in negroes is by no means unheard of. Becard saw several examples in New Guinea. Livingstone and Simons also describe them, and Deschamps heard of eight cases on the coast of Malabar.

Marriage as a Livelihood.

Asked if his wife earned any money, a Bradford plaintiff replied: "That's what I got well for. She was in work, and I couldn't keep myself."

Australian Seaweeds.

No fewer than 1,122 different species of seaweed are found on Australian coasts.

DAMES AND DAUGHTERS.

Mrs. Matilda A. Peraan of Nashua, N. H., eighty-five years old, has fifteen children, sixty grandchildren and sixty-eight great-grandchildren.

Mrs. W. H. C. Keough, a member of the Chicago board of education, is making a vigorous campaign in that city against the sale of dime novels to children.

Miss Clara A. Brown, who has superintended for eight years the deaconess work in Spokane, Wash., resigned. Her successor is Miss Mary Comstock, formerly of Milwaukee.

Miss McLaughlin made a new world's record for woman swimmers at Glasgow on Nov. 25. She swam fifty yards in thirty-seven seconds, which is a second faster than the previous record.

Mrs. Elizabeth Kyle, who has just died in Paterson, N. J., during her lifetime gave $500,000 to charity. The free public library in her city she named to the memory of Charles Danforth, her father.

Miss Molly Canning of Long Island has taken a daily plunge in the surf for the last two months. Even the recent blizzard did not keep her from her morning sea bath. "I was never so healthy in my life," she says.

Miss Violet Elliott is London's latest musical wonder. She is known as the "lady bass" and takes the lowest D in singing. Miss Paley could sing the E flat. D is half a tone lower. Contraltos are usually asked to take no note lower than G.

Theresa Humbert, who is confined in the prison at Rennes, has developed a mania for writing abusive, incoherent letters to officials concerning the supposed dissipation of the Crawford millions. The authorities are considering her transference to an asylum for the insane.

CHURCH AND CLERGY.

Bishop Potter will spend the better part of next summer in Europe, starting in February.

Bishop A. A. Curtin, vicar general of the archdiocese of Baltimore, celebrated the thirtieth anniversary of his ordination to the priesthood on Dec. 17.

The Rev. Dr. Henry Lesley Steves, who has been elected president of Carleton college at Farmington, Mo., has been pastor of the Trinity Methodist church of St. Louis.

The Rev. Charles E. Rice, who has been on leave of absence from his post in Alaska because of ill health, has taken charge at Skagway and officiates for the army at Fort W. H. Seward, at Haines.

A "social questions committee" has been appointed by the National Free Church Council of Great Britain, its duty being to investigate and to suggest to churches ways of serving the social interests of their communities better.

Mexican Children.

Mexican children are said to be the most polite in the world, surpassing even the Japanese. Not only do they show the utmost respect to their elders, but any boy meeting another in the street will lift his cap and bow before engaging in conversation or sport.

DEFICIT NEARLY $300.

Financial Condition of Rutland Baseball Association Made Public.

Rutland, Jan. 12.—The annual meeting of the Rutland Baseball association was held at Pythian hall Tuesday evening and the following new board of directors was elected: W. L. Davis, E. R. Hopkins, Steven D. Powers, Dr. R. H. Miner, F. E. D. Farmer, John Kirkpatrick, C. L. Robinson, E. S. Whitaker, E. H. O'Brien, W. W. Nichols, Jas. O'Brien. About 40 stockholders attended the meeting.

The report of the treasurer, Will L. Davis, shows that the association has outstanding bills to the amount of $323.25. To meet this the treasurer has $74.41 cash on hand and there is $25 in unpaid subscriptions considered good so the total shortage for the year is $290.84.

The receipts for the year were $9,448.92, and the heaviest expenses included: Salaries, board and car-fare, $6,963.38; paid independent teams, $455.34; paid police and ticket men and advertising, $419.43; bonus to St. Albans, $400; fair grounds rent, $300.

Had it not been for the St. Albans bonus the association would have finished the season out of debt.

CALEDONIA FAIR OFFICERS.

Receipts For 1904 Were $5,400.99 and Disbursements, $5,286.

St. Johnsbury, Jan. 12.—The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Caledonia Fair Ground Co. was held yesterday and the following directors were elected: T. M. Vail, of Lyndon Center, B. F. Weeks, Albert Harris, H. A. Stanley, J. B. Stevens, T. R. Stiles, George C. Cary, E. M. Taft, J. C. Gray, of St. Johnsbury, L. W. Hastings, of Concord, and T. A. Meader, of Ryegate. The directors organized by electing the following officers: President, E. M. Taft; vice president, Albert Harris; secretary and treasurer, H. A. Stanley. The next fair will be held September 12, 13, and 14.

It was reported that the total receipts for the year have been $5,400.99, and the disbursements $5,286.66. The receipts were from the following sources: Admission to fair, $2,708.30; entry fees, $45; rental, $1,108.15; grand stand, $750.75; other sources, $788.89. The expenses have been as follows: Premiums, $1,293.82; printing and advertising, $345.36; repairing grounds, $235.33; help at fair, $695.09; races and attractions, $1,628.30; all other expenses, $1,071.06.

CASE OF MISPLACED LOVE.

A Bennington Hotel Girl Seeks a Married Man in Boston for Husband.

Bennington, Jan. 12.—Miss Lizzie Gallagher, who came here about a year ago from Rutland and began work in the Putnam house, is supposed to be in Boston seeking the hand of Lewis A. Peck of that city in marriage. Peck came here from Boston and was engaged for some time as a detective in the Sargood poisoning case. While here he showed considerable attention to Miss Gallagher who evidently believed him to be in love with her.

Monday Miss Gallagher left here telling her friends that she was going to Boston to marry Peck. Since then it has been learned by the police here that Peck already has a wife and two children living in Boston, and it not known here what kind of a reception the girl will receive there. It is said that Peck is a former resident of Vermont, coming from some town in Chittenden county.
